AN ACT

For the relief of Dwayne C. Cox and William D. Martin.

Dwayne C. Cox,
William D. Martin.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Dwayne C. Cox and William D. Martin, employees of the Umatilla Army Depot, Department of the Army, Hermiston, Oregon, are hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sums of $1,216.80 and $1,810.40 representing gross salary overpayments to the said Dwayne C. Cox and William D. Martin, respectively, for the respective periods October 21, 1962, through June 11, 1966, and October 21, 1962, through July 9, 1966, as a result of administrative errors without fault or knowledge on their parts, in adjusting their salary rates under section 504 of the Federal Salary Reform Act of 1962 (76 Stat. 84, 5 U.S.C. 1173, 1964 ed.) and the regulations promulgated thereunder. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be allowed for the amounts for which liability is relieved by this section.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Dwayne C. Cox and William D. Martin, respectively, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from them by the United States from amounts otherwise due either of them from the United States, on account of the liabilities referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with these claims, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any persons violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT

For the relief of Mary Jane Orloski.

August 3, 1968
[H. R. 6655]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Mary Jane Orloski, of Rockville, Maryland, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $1,847.20, representing overpayments of salary which she received as an employee of the National Bureau of Standards, for the period from June 21, 1964, through July 30, 1966, such overpayments having been made as a result of administrative error in determining the rate of basic compensation to which the said Mary Jane Orloski was entitled when she was transferred from Walter Reed as a mechanical engineer to the National Bureau of Standards as a technical writer, effective June 21, 1964. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Mary J. Orloski.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to the said Mary Jane Orloski, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from her on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.
